Nektar Therapeutics Reports Financial Results for the First Quarter of 2017

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9, 2017 /PRNewswire/ — Nektar Therapeutics (Nasdaq: NKTR) today reported its financial results for the first quarter ended March 31, 2017.

Cash and investments in marketable securities at March 31, 2017 were $362.0 million as compared to $389.1 million at December 31, 2016.

"I am very pleased with our continued success in advancing the Nektar pipeline, driven by our expanding research in immuno-oncology and immunology that continues to generate highly valuable new clinical candidates," said Howard W. Robin, President and Chief Executive Officer of Nektar. "In March, we announced overwhelmingly positive efficacy and safety results from our Phase 3 study of NKTR-181 in patients with chronic low back pain. Our Phase 1/2 study evaluating NKTR-214 as a combination regimen with Opdivo® in collaboration with Bristol-Myers Squibb is advancing and we look forward to reporting initial data from the first patients in this trial at ASCO. In Q1, we also initiated a first-in-human trial for NKTR-358, our proprietary Treg stimulator, which has the potential to become a first-in-class resolution therapeutic for a wide range of immune-mediated disorders. We plan to report the results from this trial at a medical meeting in the second half of 2017."

Revenue for the first quarter of 2017 was $24.7 million as compared to $58.9 million in the first quarter of 2016. Revenue in the first quarter of 2016 was higher primarily because of the recognition of $28.0 million received from AstraZeneca for the sublicense of MOVENTIG[®] to Kirin in Europe. In addition, product sales were $4.8 million in the first quarter of 2017 as compared to $14.1 million in the first quarter of 2016.

Total operating costs and expenses for the first quarter of 2017 were $79.2 million as compared to $68.4 million in the first quarter of 2016. Total operating costs and expenses increased primarily as a result of higher research and development (R&D) expense in the first quarter of 2017. R&D expense in the first quarter of 2017 was $61.1 million as compared to $49.3 million for the first quarter of 2016 and was higher in the first quarter of 2017 primarily due to expenses for our NKTR-214 and NKTR-358 programs.

General and administrative expense was $12.0 million in the first quarter of 2017 as compared to $10.2 million in the first quarter of 2016.

In the first quarter of 2017, net loss was $63.9 million, or $0.42 loss per share as compared to net loss of $19.5 million, or $0.14 loss per share in the first quarter of 2016. The loss was higher year over year primarily because of the recognition of $28.0 million received from AstraZeneca for the sublicense of MOVENTIG[®] to Kirin in Europe in the first quarter of 2016.

The company also announced upcoming presentations at the following scientific congresses during the second quarter of 2017:

Examples of forward-looking statements include, among others, statements we make regarding the potential therapeutic benefits of NKTR-181, the risks of opioid abuse resulting from pain medicines, future development plans for NKTR-181, the availability of data for NKTR-214 in combination with Opdivo, clinical development plans for our products (including NKTR-358), availability of future clinical results, the timing of planned regulatory filings, the potential of NKTR-214 in combination with other immunotherapy agents, and the potential of our research and development pipeline. Instead, they are based only on our current beliefs, expectations and assumptions and are subject to inherent uncertainties, risks and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict and many of which are outside of our control. Our actual results may differ materially from those indicated in the forward-looking statements and you should not rely on such statements. Important factors that could cause our actual results to differ materially from those indicated in the forward-looking statements include: (i) clinical study outcomes remain very unpredictable and it is possible that a clinical study could fail; (ii) the regulatory pathway to review and approve NKTR-181 for use in patients is subject to substantial uncertainty; (iii) regulations concerning access to opioid-based pharmaceuticals are strict and there is no guarantee which scheduling category will apply to NKTR-181 if regulatory approval is achieved; (iv) the CHMP and FDA have substantial discretion as to whether to grant marketing approval for pharmaceutical products; (v) our drug candidates and those of our collaboration partners are in various stages of clinical development and the risk of failure is high and can unexpectedly occur at any stage prior to regulatory approval for numerous reasons including negative safety and efficacy findings even after positive findings in previous preclinical and clinical studies; (vi) the commencement or end of clinical trials and the availability of clinical data may be delayed or unsuccessful; (vii) patents may not issue from our patent applications for our drug candidates, patents that have issued may not be enforceable, or additional intellectual property licenses from third parties may be required; and (viii) certain other important risks and uncertainties set forth in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 1, 2017.
